

Alpine-Adriatic Hiking Weeks – to the pinnacles of enjoyment

He knows the mountains and trails of the Carinthia-Slovenia-Italy “3-Corners Region” like the back of his hand: Walter Mamedof takes guests of the Karnerhof out on hikes that are a true joy.

Nature adventures without bounds, in the truest sense of the word, are guaranteed to you during our “Alpine-Adriatic Hiking Weeks” at the Hotel Karnerhof in Egg, here on the shores of the Faaker See (Carinthia). Your certified hiking guide, Walter Mamedof, begins his expeditions through the imposing natural setting of the Carinthia-Slovenia-Italy 3-Corners Region – amid the crystal-clear lakes and mighty peaks of the Karawanken – with a hike through the Loibltal Valley out to the suspension bridge and the waterfalls of the Tscheppa Gorge, known by many as the “Grand Canyon of Carinthia”. On the following day, magnificent panoramas are your reward for your hike up to the Mittagkogel, one of the peaks of the Karawanken chain. The gently domed mountains of the Nockberge and a jump into the thermal waters of the Roman Baths in Bad Kleinkirchheim are your rewards on the fourth day, while on Day 5, you will head out to the Julian Alps for a hiking tour taking you around the Begunjščica, through rocky tunnels and to the Prevalalm. And to wind things up, just a touch of culture: Close to Trieste, Mamedof will roam with his guests in the footsteps of the “Duino Elegies” by poet Rainer Maria Rilke, from the tranquil charm of coastal landscapes to a world of bleak, yet magical karst.
