

Gourmet Night – Dining meets Passion

A new and very special package at the Karnerhof invites guests to combine the internationally acclaimed cuisine of the legendary “Götzlstube” with luxurious accommodations on the shores of the Faaker See.

His half-board dinners are exceptional. And the dishes which Thomas Guggenberger conjures up in the “Götzlstube” à-la-carte restaurant, have even been awarded “Two Chefs’ Hats” (16 points) by prestigious restaurant guide, Gault Millau. Carinthia, the southernmost province in Austria, is heavily influenced by its Italian and Slovenian neighbours. Which explains why the cuisine of the Hotel Karnerhof reflects a successful interplay of Mediterranean and regional elements.

Most of the produce comes directly from local markets in Carinthia and Friuli. Others, such as the Balsamico Tradizionale, Thomas Guggenberger purchases direct from producers in Modena, as he does also the special olive oil from Gianni Sommariva in Liguria on Italy’s western coast.

Year-round, our chef takes seasonal vegetables and herbs from his enormous herb garden, in order to conjure up the finest culinary works of art imaginable, featuring the likes of asparagus and porcini mushrooms, venison noisettes and whitefish.

The dishes are accompanied by wines from the wine list compiled with extraordinary enthusiasm by owner, Hans Melcher, head sommelier, Franz Egger, as well as Martin Heigl. And as a special extra to go with your dinner: those glorious panoramic views from our lakeside terrace.
